WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1871.

THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, from its original establishment, has been in the receipt of telegraphic news from the New York Associated Press, which consists of the Tribune, Times, Herald, World, Sun, Journal of Commerce, Evening Post, Commercial Advertiser, and Evening Express. The success which has attended our enterprise is, in itself, a sufficient evidence of the freshness, fullness, and reliability of the news which we have received from this source.

The earliest regular edition of THE EVENING TELEGRAPH goes to press at 1 1/2 o'clock, and the subsequent regular editions at 2 1/2, 3 1/2, and 4 1/2. Whenever there is important news of the progress of the European war, extra editions will be issued during this hour, and before the regular time for the early edition.

SAN DOMINGO.

REAR-ADMIRAL LEE, who is cruising around San Domingo, has sent a report, dated January 8, to the Secretary of the Navy, which, although it manifestly intended to be as favorable as the facts will permit, does not give a flattering picture of the political and financial condition of the proposed acquisition. The Admiral states that the delay in completing annexation "is attended by financial trouble, anxiety, and the risk of insurrection."

THE INCOME TAX.

THE indications are that Congress will probably repeal the income tax during the present session. If those who are interested in the matter will bring the proper pressure to bear, General Pleasanton has commenced well as Commissioner of Internal Revenue by declaring against this iniquitous tax, and by presenting forcible arguments against its continuance.

desire of certain Western and Southern members to favor constituents whose wealth consists of lands and produce rather than money, and who have no cash incomes worth speaking of, caused the income tax to be prolonged despite the promise made when it was first imposed as an extreme war measure that it should be discontinued at a specified date.

IN PROPORTION to population, value of property, amount of business, and extent of territory over which it is transacted, no civilized country is so badly provided with currency as the United States at the present day. The supply of the whole South and of many prosperous newly-developed regions in the West is a great deal smaller now than that furnished to the loyal States alone during the Rebellion; and, as a natural consequence, many business men are frequently subjected to serious inconvenience.

As a result of the row in the Republican party in Nebraska, the newly-elected Senator (Hitchcock) received nearly as many Democratic as Republican votes. He may, therefore, be expected to strengthen the Democratic column in the Senate on many if not on all issues, and his triumph will cause a corresponding diminution in the Senatorial strength of the Republican party.

OBITUARY.

Thomas Garrett, one of the original Abolitionists, and for many years a prominent manager of the "underground railway" in the good old pro-slavery times, when to be an Abolitionist was to be an outlaw, died last night at his residence in Wilmington, Delaware, at the age of eighty-two years.

A recent circular, published by authority of the House of Commons, gives the following as the quantity, in tons, of iron rails exported from Great Britain to the countries named during the nine months ending September 30th, of the three past years—

Table with 3 columns: Country, 1868, 1869, 1870. Rows include United States, Brazil, Cuba, Chili, Peru, Russia, Sweden, Prussia, Rumania, France, Holland, Spain and Portugal, British India, Australia, Egypt, and other countries.

Of the total export of British rails for the first nine months of 1870, barely 160,000 tons were taken by all the existing British possessions, including India with her two hundred millions of people.

of specific mention, though those countries still need railroads and are under the influence of British economic policy. We protestants, who are charged with fostering and paralyzing international commerce, afford to Great Britain nearly all the markets for her rails that are of any consequence, while her free-trade allies and servitors are too poor to buy of her save meagrely and inconsiderably.
